

Little Singers of Armenia

Little Singers of Armenia was founded in 1992 under the auspices of the Armenian Little Singers International Association and Yerevan Municipality. The repertoire of the Little Singers of Armenia choir includes sacred and secular choral works by Armenian and composers from around the world, classical pieces, arrangements of folk songs, as well as popular and jazz compositions. The program includes choral works ranging from the 5th to the 21st centuries, including contemporary composers.

Little Singers of Armenia has performed extensively in cities and countries throughout Europe, Asia, Africa, and North America. The talent of this choir is evident in its many competitive achievements throughout the musical world. Aside from competitions, the choir has also participated in more than 24 various international festivals.

The Little Singers of Armenia were recognized as a Choir of the European Union, nominated as Cultural Ambassador by the European Federation of Choirs in 2001, and awarded the Leonardo da Vinci silver medal by the European Academy of Natural Sciences. In 2002 the choir is recognized as one of the best choirs in the world by IFCM. The choir has also received some of the highest awards bestowed by the President of Armenia as well as the country's Ministry of Culture and the Ministry of Science and Education, and the Mayor of Yerevan.

The Little Singers of Armenia often perform under famous conductors, participate in significant state programs, such as the Cultural Days of Armenia in Russia (2001), the 80th anniversary of Charles Aznavour in Paris (2004), the Year of Armenia in Russia (2006), and the Year of Armenia in France (2007), Solemn ceremony of the visit of Pope Francis to Armenia (2016), Solemn opening ceremony of the seventeenth summit of the Francophonie (2018).

The choir has released 16 CD albums. Some of these CD's have received national and international awards and prizes.